eToro furthers global sponsorship programme adding Australia Rugby

Global multi-asset investment platform eToro, has today announced it is the Presenting Partner for the 2020 Tri Nations. The eToro Tri Nations replaces the annual Rugby Championship following the recent withdrawal of South Africa. As part of the sponsorship the eToro logo will feature on all official branding for the upcoming Tri Nations Series as well as on the Wallabies playing strip.

As well supporting international rugby union, eToro boasts an extensive global sponsorship portfolio including six Premier League and six Bundesliga football clubs in Germany as well as top ten ranked tennis player Gael Monfils.

Dylan Holman, global sponsorship senior manager at eToro said: “We are delighted to add Rugby Australia to our global sponsorship programme, demonstrating our commitment to the Australian market after launching commission free stocks investing there this year.

“The passion for sport unites people across the world and so it is a great way to reach our global audience. The Australian market has been an important part of eToro’s global expansion in 2020 and our sponsorship programme enables us to strengthen our brand worldwide by creating meaningful partnerships.”

eToro has over sixteen million registered users globally and enables people to invest in the assets they want, from stocks to commodities and currencies. The platform not only allows you to choose what you invest in, but also how you invest. You can trade yourself, copy another investor, or invest in a portfolio.

Rugby Australia interim Chief Executive, Rob Clarke said: “We’re incredibly appreciative of eToro committing to be the presenting partner for the 2020 Tri Nations and we are looking forward to developing a long-term partnership with them. We’re all very excited for the eToro Tri Nations to kick-off this Saturday night at ANZ Stadium in Sydney with the Wallabies facing off against New Zealand in the first of six back-to-back blockbusters across Brisbane, Sydney and Newcastle.”
